Dear Helen & Elmer,
This beautiful view is from a little town high above a stretch of the Amalfi coast where Jim & I drove last weekend.
The coast is so rugged & the road twists & turns hundreds of times but with each turn there's another lovely prospect.

We had lunch in Amalfi (seafood, of course, & visited an underground grotto or cave lit indirectly by natural light so it looks like the water is emerald green inside.
Love, Vicki & Jim
